

Abstract

In this talk, I should focus on the higher order conformally invariant equations. We interpolate them in terms of the conformal geometry. Natural geometric information provides the maximum principle for such equations. This is the joint work with W. Wang.